TWO FINE OIL PAINTINGS BY JOHN ZOFFANY, R.A.

- 1 ZOFFANY (John, R.A.) THE ORIGINAL OIL PAINTING of "The EMBASSY of HYDERBECK to CALCUTTA, from the NAWĀB of OUDH by way of PATNA, in the year 1788, to meet LORD CORNWALLIS," a large canvas, measuring 4 ft. 1 in. by 3 ft. 6 in., in gold frame £200

This fine picture is well-known from the engraving of it by Earlom, but the picture itself, until quite recently, was considered to have perished in the mutiny. Its whereabouts was even unknown to Dr. Williamson when he wrote his Life of Zoffany in 1920.

The cavalcade is seen marching towards Patna. A male baggage-elephant is irritated by his driver, who is taken from his seat and destroyed; by this violent action of the elephant women and children are seen falling from his back. The second elephant in the picture carries Captain (afterwards Sir John) Kennaway, Lord Cornwallis's Aide-de-Camp. Zoffany is seen riding a horse by his side.

- 2 ——— The ENGRAVING of the "EMBASSY of HYDERBECK to CALCUTTA, from the Vizier of Oude by way of Patna, in the year 1788, to meet Lord Cornwallis," fine large mezzotint engraving by Earlom after Zoffany (OPEN LETTER PROOF), 1800 £10

- 3 ——— A FINE PORTRAIT IN OILS of BENERAM PUNDIT, the Vakeel, or Minister of the Rajah of Berar (33½ by 24 in.), framed £85

This original painting was executed at the request of WARREN HASTINGS (and until recently in the possession of a member of the Hastings family), as a record of his gratitude and friendship for a man who rendered him great service during the Benares Insurrection. Hastings had a great affection for the picture and it always hung in his dining room.

- 600 ——— A CONTEMPORARY MANUSCRIPT ACCOUNT of the OPERATIONS against TIPPOO under Gen. MEDOWS and LORD CORNWALLIS, over 200 pp., 4to., in 2 vols, native binding £5
- The first volume gives an account of the abortive operations against Tippoo during 1790, and the second deals with the final operations which ended in the siege of Seringapatam, 1792. The writer was evidently an eye-witness. He gives a minute account of Gen. Medow's attempted suicide, by shooting himself in the stomach, owing to the failure of his part of the attack on Seringapatam, Feb. 6, 1792, a fact not mentioned in the usual sources of information.
- Inserted is a letter from a Mr. Royd's to Lord Loughborough saying that his brother in India had sent the manuscript for his lordship. This brother is evidently John Royds, a lawyer, who is mentioned in the third volume of William Hickey's Memoirs just published. It may be that the Author was the Hon. William Monson who served in the 52nd Regiment with Dirom and Madden, who are both mentioned at the beginning of the manuscript.
